- 6. (Secret JMM) Explained in confidence to Frank Slatinshek, Acting Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, the holddown on briefings regarding Cientuegos. I said that in fact, so far as I knew, there was very little information to add to what had already appeared in the press. Slatinshek said if I thought that was all there was to it, I was mistaken, and indicated that he had turned up a good deal of information from other sources.
- 7. (Secret JMM) Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, said that Senator Henry Jackson was most anxious for an early briefing on the Cienfuegos matter. I said I would have to check with the Director. She indicated she was aware of the holddown.
